WILL YOU BE THERE?

At the meeting of the Board of Trade, to be held in the Marietta Club rooms next Monday evening, March 18, questions will be considered that will be of great interest and vital importance, not only to Marietta, but to the entire territory which comprises Washington county. Because of this fact it behooves every member of the Board of Trade to see to it that he is in attendance at this meeting to participate in the business which will be presented for consideration.

The reports of three committees will be received, as follows:

1. THE COMMITTEE ON THE OHIO RIVER LOCK AND DAM.
2. THE COMMITTEE ON GOOD ROADS FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY.

3. THE COMMITTEE ON SECURING THE G. A. R.-W. R. C.-S. OF V.-L. A. S. ENCAMPMENT FOR 1902.

Each of these reports will doubtless bring forth interesting discussion and the importance of a full attendance on the part of the membership of the Board of Trade can very readily be seen. Let everybody be there.

Connecticut, that thrifty State of Yankee notions, which never sold a wooden nutmeg, although in its early days it may possibly have whittled out a few for fun is about to ship a million and a half pounds of wire for use on electric lines in India. Little brass idols for Hindoo temple worship have been modeled in Birmingham for generations, but it is somewhat startling to learn that New England is called upon to supply trolley wires for the land Vishnu and Siva. The wheels of the triumphal chariot of the Oriental deity were red with sacrifice in former years. Let us hope that the victims of the modern Juggernaut will never equal in numbers those earlier lists of the slain.

From every quarter comes reports of the clean, honest campaign that is being made by Mr. R. G. Putnam for the city marshalship. Mr. Putnam is a gentleman in every sense of the word, and is especially well equipped for the discharge of the important duties of this important office. Vote for Putnam.

MEXICAN AFFAIRS.

Grave fears are felt over the condition of President Diaz, of Mexico, whose health is reported to be very poor, and already speculation is rife as to what might be the fate of our sister republic in the event of the death of its Chief Executive. But little credence is put in the belief that such event would result in an uprising or a civil conflict, however, there seems to be a growing feeling that something is decidedly and radically wrong with the management of Mexican affairs. The President of Mexico, General Porfirio Diaz, was born in 1830. He acceded to the office of President of the Mexican Republic on the first day of December, 1884, and has served in that capacity continuously ever since. The President is elected by electors who are popularly chosen at a general election, holds office for four years, and, according to the last amendment there is no prohibition to his re-election without limit. In case of his sudden disability, the Secretary of Foreign Affairs officiates in his place; in case of leave, death, or permanent disability, Congress elects a pro tempore President, until either of the two last cases, a President is elected by the people. Congress has to meet annually from September 16th to December 15th, and from April 1st to May 31st, and a permanent Committee of both Houses sits during the recess.

The present constitution of Mexico bears the date of February 5, 1857, with subsequent amendments. By its terms Mexico is considered a Federation Republic, divided into States, nineteen at the outset, but at present twenty-seven in number, with two Territories and one Federal District, each having a right to manage its own local affairs, while the whole are bound together in one body politic by fundamental and constitutional laws. The powers of the Federal Government, like the United States, are divided into three branches—legislative, executive and judicial. Congress consists of a Senate and a House of Representatives. The Senators are elected indirectly and the Representatives directly—the terms of the former are four and those of the latter two years.

The salary of President Diaz is fifty thousand dollars per year, while that of each member of his Cabinet is fifteen thousand dollars.

To the student of civilization the increase of certain kinds of crime in the United States is startling. While there is a decrease in brutal crimes, there is a marked increase in crimes involving blackmail, and generally of pecuniary crimes—to coin a phrase—such as embezzlement, forgery, swindling and counterfeiting. Criminals in this country are not only of a high degree of intelligence, but many of them are well educated, being graduates of colleges and the common schools.

The reported rumor that S. A. Seipel would assume the management of the printing business of Goldsmith & Blair is without foundation. After the first of April the duties of Mr. Seipel as City Commissioner will take all of his time and attention and he will not be in position to look after any outside matters.

RIVER BREVITIES.

Pungent Paragraphs of Interest to River Men From Wharf and Bank.

The little thrill of excitement which slightly disturbed the commercial equilibrium of merchants who feared another high water has now subsided and all that is left for the river men to talk about is the state of trade, the speed of various boats and kindred topics. The muddy Ohio has left a portion of its soil solution on the banks and has now settled down to a safe conservative stage of 21½ feet.

The captains of all the packets report an exceptionally good trade. Several of the local packets are kept busy day and night, hardly giving their crews time for rest.

A COUGH

Is a little thing when it begins. This is the time to stop it. The longer you put it off the harder it is to cure. The longer it lasts, the more serious it becomes. Let it run on, and there's no telling what the end will be. The case of consumption was a little cold once. Black Cough Syrup will stop any cough when it first begins. It will stop most all coughs after they get bad. But the best way is to take it at the first sign of a cold. It ought to be right at your elbow all the time.
